Announcing the Start of a System for Childcare for Everyone

Starting in April, the “Childcare for Everyone” system will take effect. This means that children can be temporarily cared for at childcare facilities even in the absence of a reason, such as a parent needing to work. To use this service, applications via the city are required in advance. Please see the city website for details.

When will it start? From April ※ Start dates and usage hours may vary depending on the facility.

Who is eligible? Children who aren’t enrolled in a childcare facility, who are at least 6 months old and under age 3

Cost: 300 yen per child per hour (fees for lunches and snacks are separate)

Other info: This system can be used for up to 10 hours per child per month.
